COMMUNITY CHAMPIONS SCHEME TO FIGHT COVID

A COMMUNITY Champions scheme has been set-up to help people in West Lancashire who have been adversely affected by the pandemic.

The project follows a successful bid to The Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government by West Lancashire Borough Council.

It will be delivered by West Lancs CVS who worked in partnership with the Council to create the initiative.

The Community Champions project is a one-year scheme which aims to improve the health and wellbeing of people whose lives have been affected by Covid-19 and to reduce health inequalities locally. The scheme will also bring investment into the local voluntary sector with new grant funding now available.

From the funding allocation of £200,000, grants ranging from £1,000 - £25,000 are now available to voluntary, community, faith, and social enterprise organisations to support the work they're doing in helping communities impacted by Covid-19.

The focus is on organisations working with or supporting vulnerable groups in West Lancashire and the grants must be used to reduce isolation, improve health and wellbeing and to help people recover from the impact the pandemic has had on their life and community.

Councillor presses for action on Prime Minister's 'promise to fix' town's flooded underpasses

Report by Henry James

SKELMERSDALE West County Cllr, Julie Gibson, is to ask the county council cabinet member for highways for an update on the money promised by the Prime Minister, Boris Johnson, to fix the continual flooding of the town's underpasses.

In a question to the Full Council which will meet this week, Cllr Gibson will follow up the promise the Prime Minister made to West Lancashire MP, Rosie Cooper, that he would 'personally ensure the money would be there'.

Cllr Gibson said: "As the County Councillor for one of the worst affected areas in Skelmersdale I know that residents dread the onslaught of heavy rain."

Families given 'vital lifeline' of vouchers for food shopping

Report by Henry James

FAMILIES whose children receive benefits-related free school meals will receive a "vital lifeline" of vouchers to help with the costs of food over the summer.

Lancashire County Council will provide funding for schools to provide vouchers worth a total of £90. Schools may provide this to parents and carers in one payment of £90 to cover the entire school holiday, or by weekly payments of £15. Each individual school will decide on how the vouchers are distributed to parents and carers.

The families of young people who have just left secondary school will also receive the vouchers.

The electronic shopping vouchers will be distributed from the schools that the children and young people attend and will be available to use to buy food at a range of supermarkets from the start of the school summer holiday.

The scheme is being partially funded by central government's Covid Support Grant with the shortfall being made up by Lancashire County Council.

County Councillor Jayne Rear, cabinet member for education and skills, said: "These vouchers will be a vital lifeline during the summer for those families who are most in need."

"We're pleased that the government has extended its Covid Support Grant for the summer as the long summer break can be a real challenge for our poorest families in Lancashire and will help ensure that children will be able to have healthy and nourishing meals during the holiday period."

If a family is eligible for free school meals, their school will be in touch with them about the voucher scheme. Parents who think their family is newly eligible should contact their school as soon as possible. Similar to the term-time voucher scheme, the vouchers can be used at Aldi, Asda, McColl's, Morrison's, Sainsbury's, Tesco, Waitrose, Company Shop Group and Iceland, including The Food Warehouse Stores.

Families can redeem vouchers by either presenting them on their smartphone or tablet, or a paper copy.

Families who are currently receiving Free School Meals, and the following benefits, will receive the vouchers directly from schools and colleges:

- Income Support
- Income-based Jobseeker's Allowance
- Income-related Employment and Support Allowance
- Support under Part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- The guaranteed element of Pension Credit
- Child Tax Credit
- Working Tax Credit run-on
- Universal Tax Credit

Eligible families will be given a spend of £15 a week to buy children's meals

Funds secured for Community Champions scheme to run across borough

Councillor Gareth Dowling, portfolio holder for Communities and Community Safety at the borough council, said: "I'm delighted the Council has secured this funding that will allow us to work in partnership with West Lancs CVS to deliver this important project.

"Not only will it help ensure the correct information about COVID-19 is getting to the heart of our communities, it will also directly support those who have been affected by this pandemic in a variety of ways and as restrictions ease over the next weeks and months, this work will be more important than ever.

"We need to make sure the people of the Borough have all of the information they need to make the right decisions when it comes to keeping themselves safe and that they are aware of the different ways they can get support if they need it - this project will be vital in helping us do that. I'd also like to thank Council officers for all the hard work undertaken to secure the funding."

A recruitment drive is currently taking place for Community Champion volunteers who will work within their communities across West Lancashire to support on-going grassroots efforts to keep people safe.

Deliver

These volunteers will play a key role in cascading the information supplied by WLBC and West Lancs CVS through their networks of family, friends, and associated organisations.

Community Champions can also help to deliver practical help to those in need in their local area or to work within a West Lancashire organisation to help enhance their vital work further.

In addition to this, West Lancs CVS will be researching and producing a local directory of voluntary, community, faith and social enterprise groups working throughout the borough. This will be available on their website later in the year to help provide access to information on the many key activities and services delivered by the voluntary sector.

For more information on the Community Champions scheme, including the grants available, go to: www.wlcvcs/community-champions or phone 01695-733737 or email enquiries@wlcvcs.org.

Junior football club secretary retires after 30 years

AUGHTON'S TOWN Green Junior Football Club's secretary has retired after more than 30 dedicated years in the post.

A special presentation was held to honour Alan Crane and there was a good turn out of both current teams, players, parents and managers and past players and managers.

Alan's connection with the club, which is based in Winifred Lane, Aughton, started when his son Jonathan, joined Town Green in 1989 and Alan took over as club secretary a couple of years later.

Emma Rimmer, who is a coach at the club, commented: "Alan organised successful trips and tournaments in the UK and abroad and worked hard to ensure there were teams running across all age groups from u7s to open age.

"He also stepped in and managed teams if there was no manager. He continued to be committed to Town Green FC even when Jonathan left.

"He developed the club from its small beginnings to a club that involved many younger age groups, both girls and boys' teams.

"He also set up a successful open age team. He's spent many evenings and weekends up in his office dealing with fixtures, pitches, fines etc and also many days have been spent marking out pitches.

Alan Crane with the players from Town Green Junior Football Club

"Alan has really enjoyed running successful tournaments, watching the club be successful over the years, and giving children an opportunity to enjoy the game." Jonathan said that his mum will be happy to get her garage back which has been full of balls and goals for as long as he can remember. Alan has seen his son and his grandson play for the club.

All the teams got together and bought Alan a watch as a thank you for his time at the club. He hands over the reins of club secretary to Peter Morana.

"On behalf of Town Green FC, players, parents, coaches, managers, want to say a big thank you to Alan," said Emma.

Motorcyclist, 59, killed after crashing into wall

A MOTORCYCLIST was killed after he collided with a wall in Rufford.

Although the rider had not been formally identified as the Champion went to press, Lancashire Police say he was a 59-year-old man from the Banks area.

The tragic incident occurred at around 3.50pm on Friday, July 9 on Holmeswood Road, close to the junction with Rufford Park Lane.

The motorcyclist was travelling in the direction of Rufford when he collided with a wall. He was sadly pronounced dead at the scene.

There are not thought to have been any other vehicles involved in the collision.

Police are now appealing for witnesses, or anybody with information about what may have happened, to come forward.

Sgt Finn Quainton, of the Lancashire Police Tactical Operations team, said: "This was a tragic incident and first and foremost we send our condolences to the victim's family and friends.

"Our thoughts are very much with them.

"We are now determined to find out exactly what happened and we are asking anybody with information about the collision to get in touch with us.

"Perhaps you saw all or part of the incident or

The junction of Holmeswood Road and Rufford Park Lane caught it on dashcam, or maybe you saw the bike in the moments before the collision occurred.

"Whatever information you have, please contact us as soon as possible."

Anybody with information is asked to get in touch on 101, quoting log 1048 of July 9th.

It's the second tragic motorbike crash in the Ormskirk area in less than a month.

Twenty-year-old Josh Daly was killed on Friday,

June 18 when he crashed into a signpost close to the Four Lane Ends roundabout.

Josh, who worked at the Scotch Piper in Lydiate, was on his way to do his motorcycle theory test when the tragedy happened.

● A 14-year-old cyclist was left with serious injuries he was involved in a crash with a car in Aughton.

Officers were called at 5pm on Thursday, July 8 to reports of a collision between a cyclist and a Honda Jazz on Formby Lane at the junction with Greens Lane.

The boy on the bicycle was taken to hospital with head and ankle injuries. His condition is serious but not life-threatening. The driver of the Jazz stopped at the scene and was not injured.

Sgt Mick Belfield, of Lancashire Police's Tactical Operations, said: "This collision has left a boy suffering some quite nasty injuries and my thoughts are with him and his family at this time. I would ask any witnesses or anybody with dashcam or CCTV footage which could assist our investigation to get in contact with police."

Anyone with information is asked to email 199@lancashire.police.uk or call 101.

Cllr wants action on flooded underpasses

"I have reports of residents having to cross busy roads to get children to school or to go about their business, because they cannot use the underpasses due to continual flooding.

"The poor maintenance of the underpasses and the cut-backs to gully cleaning by the Conservative administration at LCC, have meant that with a heavy downpour of rain an already stretched and outdated system of gullies cannot cope with the flash floods that we now experience."

Cllr Gibson continued: "In the budget debate back in February I moved a motion for a regular maintenance programme to be re-introduced into the highways cycle, but unfortunately it was rejected.

"At the same time, the Prime Minister promised that money would be made available to LCC to fix the issue and that he would personally ensure that it was done. Nearly six months on, and we are no nearer to fixing the problem."

Cllr Gibson said: "I have asked the cabinet member for Highways for re-assurances that the money will come to the Council and that when it does it will be ring-fenced for the underpasses. But that is not the end of the problem.

"Regular maintenance is the only way to ensure that the problem does not keep re-occurring and I will continue to raise this issue with the Council to get a satisfactory resolution to something which is an everyday struggle for many Skelmersdale residents."

Police launch booklet to support survivors of rape and serious sexual assault

Report by Henry James

LANCASHIRE Police chiefs have launched a digital guide called 'What happens after you report a rape or sexual assault' to support survivors of rape and serious sexual assault.

The booklet has been developed in conjunction with survivors of rape and sexual assault and their advocates from Lancashire Victim Services to keep people informed about what happens after a report of rape or sexual assault is made, including non-recent incidents. The booklet covers:

- The stages of an investigation and a person's rights during this process
- The criminal justice system
- The help and support available in the county

Det Chief Inspector Jason Richardson of the Public Protection Unit at Lancashire Police said: "The aftermath of a crime of this nature can often be an involved and complex process. Ensuring victims have clear and concise information, at the right time, around this very sensitive subject, is crucial to empowering victims by enabling them to know and understand what happens after they've made a report to us. This work is part of a wider focus upon tackling serious violence, with the Force being a member of the regional communications group established to review information about rape and serious sexual assault across the North West, providing greater visibility of support services within the region and helping victims better understand what support is available to them.

"We take all reports of these types of offences extremely seriously and will work with victims in a sensitive manner to investigate these very serious offences, bring offenders to justice, and ensure victims have the appropriate support through the criminal justice process."

Andrew Snowden, Police and Crime Commissioner for Lancashire added: "I really want people to feel safe and empowered to come forward and report these types of crime so that we can target offenders and bring them to justice."

"Ensuring we provide the right information from the start is crucial and will make, what is no doubt a daunting process, easier to understand."

"Lancashire Victim Services are on hand to provide additional support to anyone affected by rape or sexual violence."

Alexandra Gornall, operations manager at Lancashire Victim Services commented: "We really welcome the development of this booklet as it will provide clarity for victims who have been through the trauma of rape or sexual assault."

"Dealing with the practicalities of reporting and going to court can be really overwhelming and the information can be difficult to take in, especially in the immediate aftermath of a crime."

"Having the information in writing will be really useful as it will allow people to read it at their own pace and at a time that is right for them."

"We are here to support them through this process, to provide emotional support and practical help and to answer any questions they may have."

Residents claim village is being 'put under siege' by housing developers

Report by Henry James

AUGHTON Residents Group (ARG) members have said on reading the latest updates on the borough council's Strategic Housing and Employment Land Availability Assessment "it appears that Aughton is once again being put 'under siege' by the plans of landowners and developers."

They want to work with the continued support and in collaboration with the elected MP, borough council, Aughton Ward Councillors, WLBC Planning Officers and Aughton Parish Council to "stop the developers dictating the terms of housing development in this borough."

In a statement to the Champion ARG said: "On reading the SHELAA and downloading the Ormskirk - Aughton (OA-) sites and the Aughton Map our first reaction was one of dismay as it appears that Aughton once again is being put under siege by the plans of landowners and developers."

"The 57 listed proposed (OA -) sites as per the Schedule of sites by settlement show an estimated yield total of some 10,184 dwellings for Ormskirk and Aughton alone."

ARG claim owners of almost every piece of farm land on the immediate periphery of Aughton have "limited interest" in keeping it in agricultural production.

They comment: "Rather, they view the 'call for sites' as an opportunity to cash in, regardless of the cost to the community, the environment and the country's long-term food production capacity."

"The 'call for sites' is treated like a lottery, merely submitting the land into the system gets them a ticket for the chance to become a multi-millionaire (or in many cases, even richer multimillionaires). They don't even have to pay for their 'ticket'."

"Whilst it is a no risk strategy for the land owners

A typical new build housing development and developers, this is not the case for the communities bordering the submitted parcels of land. Residents, and that means real people, real families, real property owners find themselves at risk of their environment being destroyed, their lives seriously disrupted and frequently find their own homes devalued."

MP Rosie Cooper added: "It is important to build houses where there is the local need to do so but any development must be in the appropriate setting."

"I believe that the council should continue to maintain this position and take serious consideration of the Aughton Residents Group's objections in developing the new Local Plan to prevent future predatory applications."

A spokesperson for the borough council responded: "It must be stressed that inclusion in the SHELAA is no indication of the council's support for the development of a particular site - as all sites submitted for consideration are assessed, without any regard to whether they would be likely to be supported by the council. In actual fact, 293 of the 320 sites submitted for housing are 'parked' in the 2020/21 SHELAA because they are contrary to current planning policy, or because they have serious constraints that would limit development, and so are not deemed as suitable for development at the current time."

"The SHELAA can be seen online at: www.west-lancs.gov.uk/shelaa"

Scarlett hopes it could still be 'coming home' after reaching her own footy final!

A TEEN football star from Skelmersdale will be hoping to have better luck than England did in Sunday's Euro 2020 final after she helped her team reach a national final.

Scarlett McMahon (pictured, right) plays for The Lancashire School FA Girls Under 16 side, who beat Merseyside 5-0 in the semi-final, and are now through to the English Schools' Football Association National final.

Scarlett is a pupil in her last year of Our Lady Queen Peace school in Skelmersdale.

The 16-year-old was offered a football scholarship in March on the Elite Girls football programme at Mount Kelly in Devon, in association with Chelsea FC Foundation.

Scarlett started her football career at Dynamo Rangers in Skelmersdale and has played for Blackburn Rovers RTC U16s for the last two seasons. She was awarded the Manager's Players award last season.

Blackburn compete at the highest level against sides such as Man City, Man United, Liverpool, Everton, and Birmingham.

She has also represented her school at County level football for the past four years playing for Lancashire Girls Schools FA.

She is on the Wales player pathway and has attended U15s camps.

Her mum Alicia said: "The football scholarship at Mount Kelly will give her the opportunity to study three A levels while also achieving her dreams on the football pitch."

Do you need a Family Law Solicitor?

As we come to terms with the after effects of the pandemic, many couples are re-evaluating their lives and realising that they want something different. Some have sadly found the emotional and financial stresses of repeated lockdowns to be the final straw for their relationships.

In these circumstances you may need specialist legal advice. Our family law solicitor, Alexandra Kenyon, has over 25 years of experience in family law work and has continued to assist clients with all their family law legal needs, such as divorce, financial matters and child related issues, throughout the pandemic and during the lockdowns.

The last year has taught us all to work more creatively - and we now not only offer face to face appointments in our offices, but video calls that can be conducted by TEAMS, ZOOM or Facetime.

We can be there to assist you with finding your way through into the next stage of your life.

Scarecrow Festival ensures 'grinning from ear to ear'

BURSCOUGH Scarecrow Festival ensured the village was 'grinning from ear to ear' and raised money in the process.

Organisers of the event said as well as some "hilariously funny entries and some scarily real ones, there were also a large number of heart-warming entries which played tribute to the efforts of those who've been key to helping the village get through the toughest times of the pandemic."

Head judge Dot, who paid her thanks to fellow judges Brenda, Lesley and Chris said: "The judges were so impressed with the entries! It was incredibly difficult deciding our winners – we would have loved to give everyone a prize!"

The winning entries were:

- Best Business – Swallow House Campsite – The Twitcher
- Best House – 72 Higgins Lane – The Staycation Sunbather
- Best School – Burscough Village Primary School – Covid Superheroes
- Best Church – Burscough Methodist Church – 'Pandemic Thank You's'

The organisers who nickname themselves 'The Scarecrow Crew' said: "We'd like to say a massive thank you to everyone who entered this year's Burscough Scarecrow Festival. This year, more than ever, the smiles you've raised with your creations have been so, so welcomed. More than that, the money you've helped raise with your entry fees will be going on to benefit the community even more."

"From the nominated good causes this year we've picked one idea which we loved and which we felt would benefit the most number of individuals here in Burscough. We're delighted to announce that the money raised will fund a Thought Bench for every one of the five primary schools here in the village."

"The pandemic has had an enormous effect on mental health and the idea behind the benches is to give children a place to sit and talk if they are feeling lonely or worried, or want to talk about any other feelings they're experiencing."

"There are so many people who have worked behind the scenes too to make this happen, so we'd also like to say a big thank you to them also – without these wonderful helpers the festival wouldn't be possible

"Lastly acknowledgement must go to The Scarecrow King himself, George, who has been creating wonderful scarecrows at the start of The Long Mile for years and who was the original inspiration for the festival."

The Scarecrow Festival was set to be part of the bigger 'Burscough Big Weekend', which was to have also involved The Burscough Duck Race and Fun Day, however, these have had to be temporarily delayed due to Covid restrictions.

The Duck Race though is now set to take place on September 26 and organisers hope to hold the fun day in the not too distant future, giving the village yet more to look forward to later in the year.

Organisers say that there are still a few duck race tickets left and anyone wishing to buy one can drop a message to www.facebook.com/Onelittlevillage.

Meanwhile, anyone who would like to be on the mailing list for next year's Burscough Big Weekend events can email burscoughbigweekend@gmail.com

Flood-hit school helped out by housing company

Report by Henry James

A SCHOOL in Ormskirk, which had to send children home due to flood damage earlier this year, has been able to reopen after Tawd Valley Developments came to the rescue by offering free repair work.

As the children of Westhead Lathom St. James' Church of England Primary School were about to return to school following the most recent lockdown, a water pipe burst causing significant damage to both a classroom and resources, meaning the children would once again be separated from their friends and teachers and sent home.

Not only was the physical structure of the school affected, but carpets, reading books and computers were also damaged. To make matters worse, their insurance didn't cover the damage.

That's where Tawd Valley Developments came in. Having started work just metres away from the school on a new development of ten homes on the site of the former Halton Castle pub, the council-owned company threw a lifeline to the school.

They offered to repair the damage to the building at no cost as well as offering to make a donation towards replacing books lost in the incident.

Whitfield & Brown, contractors from other live Tawd Valley developments in Skelmersdale spent one week repairing the damage to the school which is now complete.

Westhead Lathom St. James' Church of England Primary School

Mark Kitts, managing director of Tawd Valley Developments, said: "When we heard about what had happened at the school, we knew straight away we wanted to help. We're delighted to have been able to get the children back into their classroom."

Headteacher Helen Clark, said: "We want to say a huge thanks to Tawd Valley Developments and Whitfield & Brown for repairing the wall in school."

"All the workmen were fantastic and we wouldn't have even known they were in school. They've done a fab job and it's great that the children can be back in their classroom."

Tawd Valley Developments is owned by West Lancashire Borough Council.

New fleet of waste collection vehicles rolled out across borough's streets

Report by Henry James

A NEW fleet of waste collection vehicles have been rolled out by West Lancashire Borough Council.

A total of 21 new Refuse Collection Vehicles (RCVs) are now in operation collecting waste across the borough - seven new 26-tonne split-body RCVs are collecting recycling, while 10 new 26-tonne RCVs are collecting general and trade waste.

Four smaller 16-tonne RCVs are also collecting waste from farms and outlying rural routes.

All RCVs will deliver the following benefits:

- 360-degree cameras, giving the driver clear vision around the vehicle, increasing visibility and reducing accidents
- electric Terberg bin-lifts that will reduce noise generated by bin collections by more than 20% in addition to reducing diesel usage
- reduction in greenhouse gases (80% reduction in NOx emissions and a 66% reduction in particulate emissions)

Michelle Williams, head of environmental services, said: "Procuring a new fleet of specialist vehicles has by no means been straightforward. Despite suffering significant setbacks resulting from Covid-19 manufacturing delays, Brexit import issues and tight restrictions on face-to-face training available in lockdown, the complete Refuse Collection fleet is now fully operational.

"This is a really positive development and will result in significant improvements for our staff and customers, with the new fleet bringing state-of-the-art technology, greater fuel efficiency, increased reliability and reductions in harmful emissions."

Councillor Kevin Wilkie, cabinet member for

The new Refuse Collection Vehicles (RCVs)

Street Scene, added: "The advanced features of our new fleet are great news for both the environment, our residents and the staff operating them. As a council, we're committed to finding more ways to be sustainably greener and this fleet will be incredibly important in informing us about how new technology can help us do that.

"We're also delighted to be working with local suppliers Riverside Truck Rental, further helping us to achieve our priority of supporting the local economy."

The new fleet will also feature advertising boards displaying key recycling messages, including the winning designs from the primary school 'recycling superheroes' competition.

The competition was launched in response to the public's lauding of key workers during the pandemic, which included waste and recycling teams, as superheroes of the community for powering on despite all the difficulties Covid-19 presented.

Local schoolchildren were asked to create designs on the theme of 'recycling superheroes' to inspire residents in West Lancashire to make a difference to the environment from their own homes.

Schoolchildren taught crucial life lessons through first aid workshop

FOLLOWING nominations made by the community last month, Delph Side Primary School in Skelmersdale was selected to receive a free first aid workshop.

The workshop taught the children key life skills ranging from what happens to their bodies if they were hurt and how they would be treated by a grown up, to understanding basic first aid knowledge required for a first aid emergency.

The classmates at Delph Side Primary School enjoyed their First Aid workshop courtesy of Mini First Aid, as part of Savlon's First Aid for Life campaign.

Liz Ormerod, headteacher at Delph Side Primary School said: "We are thrilled to have been offered this opportunity and so thankful to all the individuals that put our

A pupil who has completed the first aid workshop school forward for a nomination.

"The session was so carefully thought out, insightful and informative and it was great for the children to engage in an experience like this outside of their usual classroom activities.

"It was lovely to see the children's confidence and skills building throughout the session and it has left them with a great sense of independence and reassurance that they know how to act in a first aid emergency."

The children were shown how to deal with bumps, burns, breaks, bleeding, how to carry out CPR and, how to deal with choking.

The Mini First Aid course content has been carefully crafted in partnership with educational psychologists, teachers and first aid industry bodies, and all its trainers are experienced in working with children as young as three years old.

At the end of the workshops the children were awarded a certificate and booklet to take home.

'Get the coronavirus jab now' urges West Lancs MP - and CCG!

Report by Henry James

THE local Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) and West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper have joined forces in urging everyone to get a Covid-19 vaccination.

Ms Cooper commented: "I would like to ask all residents of West Lancashire aged 18 or over to come forward for a Covid-19 vaccine if they have not done so already. I am really glad to hear that the CCG have now increased the number of pop up clinics available in the area.

"It is now really easy to get the jab in West Lancashire, with these walk-in clinics taking place across the whole borough, so you can turn up without an appointment to get a jab at your convenience!

"There is a vaccine bus that is visiting areas across West Lancashire, which also does not require an appointment. Getting vaccinated doesn't just protect you, but your loved ones and everyone in West Lancashire."

Full, up-to-date information on these walk-in sites is available on West Lancashire CCG's website and social media channels at <https://www.westlancashireccg.nhs.uk/covid-19-vaccination-programme/>

Emma Robinson, Covid-19 vaccination programme manager for NHS West Lancashire CCG said: "We have been encouraged by uptake for our pop up clinics and are pleased to be able to extend our pop up clinic offer, giving residents of West Lancashire even more opportunity to get a COVID-19 vaccine. It has been a true team effort between GPs, local authority and CCG staff and volunteers, as well as community leaders and those who have allowed us to use their venues.

"If you are 18 or over, please come forward to one of our clinics to receive either your first dose or the booster second dose, which gives you stronger and longer-lasting protection against the virus.

"You do not need an appointment and we have made every effort to reach out to residents across every area of West Lancashire."

Raising flag for frontline workers

STOCKS Hall Ormskirk's staff felt proud on Tuesday, July 6 after a morning spent at West Lancashire Council Offices.

They were delighted to be invited for a ceremony to mark the raising of the flag for the NHS and Social Care Frontline Workers Day (shown, right). The Mayor of West Lancashire, Cllr Gordon Johnson, gave a speech and Father Godric Timney blessed the flag before it was raised.

A spokesperson for the home said: "It was a lovely morning reflecting on how everyone has worked so hard during Covid times. It was a great honour, privilege and pleasure to be a part of this ceremony. Thanks to all who worked so hard, together."

Exasperated patients resort to self-diagnosis

S.Heywood (Letters June 23) asks the public to 'think hard before being critical of doctors'. The majority, however, will be in agreement with Julia of Litherland (also June 23).

Something is seriously wrong with this whole situation of doctors not seeing patients face to face and it has nothing to do with Covid. Speak to anyone and the problems they are encountering are phenomenal. All saying the same thing.

Trying to get connected is the first problem! Unless you have nothing at all to do and can hold on long enough for your battery not to run out before finally, finally, getting connected to a receptionist who doesn't even pretend to understand/show sympathy let alone any empathy and who then tells you that all slots are booked and you should have phoned earlier!

Then, it's 'no, you can't speak to a GP today. No, you can't send photos through as you haven't got an appointment with a GP... ahhhhh, give me strength!

People are exasperated and resorting to self diagnosis with the help of the internet! Scary stuff as symptoms, apparently, can be anything from minor stress to late stages of cancer! No wonder mental health problems are rising.

I fail to understand why GPs can't actually 'see' patients now? Practice nurses do it?

Is this what we are reduced to for ever more? Frustration, upon frustration and being fobbed off constantly by non medical staff? I am off now to try for the 13th (working) day to get a phone appointment with my GP.

Kathryn Kelly, Birkdale

It's time well-rewarded GPs did the job they are paid to do

I have read with interest the letters which have appeared in the Champion regarding GP services.

I agree entirely with the opinion that GPs reacted very badly during lockdown and throughout the pandemic to date.

The contrast I see is between ICU Doctors working very closely with Covid patients in often inadequate PPE, in some cases giving their life to save a patient.

Meanwhile the GPs take to working from home and doing everything to keep away from patients even though they have ensured any such patient does not have Covid.

If we were able to consign this behaviour to the past and get back to normal then I would not feel so concerned.

The situation is, however, by stealth GP surgeries are deciding to keep the phone/Zoom method of 'treating' patients with face to face kept for exceptional circumstances and only at the doctor's discretion.

Key to this so called 'triage process' is the role of the reception staff. Responses in this paper from GPs have commented on how the patient should be kind to them. What is also lacking is the recognition of the reception staff of the need to be polite to the patient.

For most of us, having a concern which we believe means we need to see our GP causes understandable anxiety. The telephone call will usually mean a 20/30 minute wait listening to dreadful music and a series of very poorly edited messages.

Often the call is cut off and you have to start again.

Covid has been a major trauma for us all and our need for caring empathetic GPs is greater than ever.

There is no effective substitute to seeing your doctor face to face.

GPs are very well rewarded for their job - it's time they did the job they are paid to do.

Deal with selfish drivers

Why is nothing done about selfish drivers using blue badge parking bays?

I have put in a complaint online to Lancashire County Council about the misuse of blue badge parking bays by work vans who park all day and other vehicles which are not displaying a blue badge on the car park next to Skelmersdale Library and, three weeks later, nothing has been done.

It happens elsewhere - in Asda's blue badge parking bays in Skelmersdale, and also at the only blue badge parking bay at the shops in Parbold.

Newburgh resident (name, address supplied)

Why not put GPs in call centres?

As most GP surgeries are not offering patients face to face consultations without jumping through many hoops, preferring telephone consultations, why not close all surgeries and have doctors based in a call centre.

This would enable all the empty surgeries to be used for something more useful.

Not beneficial to most of us who want face to face consultations, but then the consideration of what patients want isn't a priority, is it?

J. London

Group will defend NHS

Further to the letter from Joe Welsh regarding proposed government changes to the fundamental principles of the NHS.

The current government's draft white paper for reform of the NHS in England, far from reversing the 2012 Health and Social Care Act, as has been widely mis-reported, will in fact consolidate the market and privatisation paradigm that the 2012 Act strengthened and which the government has favoured during the covid-19 pandemic.

The current Bill firmly sets the scene for further facilitating the introduction and domination of private providers, a design feature derived from health maintenance and accountable care organisations in the US - the 'Americanisation' Mr Welsh alludes to.

Transparency, scrutiny and local accountability will suffer. Actual decision-making will be decoupled from legal functions and the effectiveness of local accountability will be diminished in the process whilst that of commercial providers will greatly increase.

Privatisation of the NHS is real and running apace as Mr Welsh stated. As he also states, this needs both highlighting and fighting. Nye Bevan famously said 'The NHS will last as long as there's folk with faith left to fight for it'. Thankfully there are such folk left.

A newly formed group 'The Skelmersdale Project for Peace and Justice' has made the defence of Nye Bevan's founding principles of the NHS (based on clinical need - not profit) and fighting the current governments privatisation plans one of our core campaigns.

We recently attended one of the many country-wide demos (on St George's plateau in Liverpool) for the defence of the NHS from privatisation on the commemoration of its 73rd year, along with a myriad of health workers and Liverpool MPs.

On July 17 we are holding our own demo outside of Nye Bevan Pool in Skelmersdale from 12 noon. Local MP Rosie Cooper has confirmed that she will be attending and we urge any members of the public who love and cherish the NHS and Nye's legacy to please come along and join us, even if only briefly.

Paul Hogan

Pandemic has been challenging for people with diabetes

The coronavirus pandemic has been difficult for us all, but it has been particularly challenging for people living with diabetes.

New figures highlighted by Diabetes UK this week show that almost 2.5 million people with diabetes in England did not get all their recommended checks last year.

These checks are essential to reducing the risk of serious complications such as blindness, heart disease, kidney disease, amputations, and poor pregnancy outcomes.

Coronavirus has also highlighted just how serious diabetes is as an underlying condition, with people with diabetes accounting for one in three deaths in England during the first wave of the pandemic.

Diabetes can't wait. It is one of our fastest-growing health crises, with one in 14 people living with diabetes in the UK. We want to see UK Government invest more in diabetes care and prevention as the country rebuilds from the pandemic - and as part of our new campaign, Diabetes Is Serious, we are asking people to sign our open letter to the new health secretary, Sajid Javid, to ask him to make sure diabetes is a priority.

The NHS has been stretched and staff have worked tirelessly to keep us safe throughout the pandemic. What we need is Government action to support our health system in these uncertain times and to ensure people living with diabetes get the vital care they need.

To find out more and to sign our letter to the Secretary of State for Health, visit: www.diabetes.org.uk/DiabetesIsSerious.

David, who lives in Southport, publishes his own word searches and crosswords. He says: "I have been fascinated with word games and puzzles since I was a child. This year, during lockdown and having recently retired, I decided to use the time to publish my first puzzle books under the Wheatear Books brand. I am currently working on the second volumes of word searches and crosswords, and these should be available later this year. It has been a great deal of fun and also more challenging than expected! I found that I particularly enjoy creating custom word searches and crossword puzzles for special occasions and events. ## Banks Leisure Centre to be turned into 'hub' after asset transfer

BANKS Leisure Centre has been taken over following a successful asset transfer.

The building, which is owned by the Department of Health and Social Care, was previously operated by West Lancashire Borough Council as part of a long-term lease agreement.

With the council's lease ending in March 2021 the Parish and Borough Councils have worked with a number of partners to safeguard the future of the facility.

This work has resulted in the formation of a new Community Interest Company, Banks Community and Leisure Centre C.I.C., who have now taken on the lease for the building.

The new company will now work with a range of partners including North Meols Parish Council, Endeavour Community and West Lancashire Borough Council to operate the facility as a hub for the local community in Banks.

The Leisure Centre will continue to host the range of sports and community sessions that previously took place but will now have the opportunity to also add a range of new sessions delivered in partnership with the community.

Bill Abram, chair of North Meols Parish Council and a director of the new CIC, said: "The Leisure Centre will be run by the community and for the community of Banks. Our aim is to create a hub for local residents that will offer something for everyone. We have recruited a number of local volunteers who are willing to help and support us in a range of tasks that will help with the day to day operation of the building."

"Additionally, our new company has Community Interest status which will allow us to apply for a range of different funding sources and grants and this will make the operation of the facility more sustainable in the future."

Councillor Yvonne Gagen, deputy leader of West Lancashire Borough Council and cabinet member for leisure and human resources, added: "I am delighted that Banks Leisure Centre will continue to operate as a true community asset."

"This new operational arrangement has come about following a significant amount of collaborative work by a number of partners. I look forward to seeing the facility flourish in the future."

If you are interested in knowing more about booking the Leisure Centre contact community@endeavourlearning.org.

If you think you have skills that you may be able to offer as a volunteer contact BCLCCIC@Outlook.com.

Forgive me for feeling fobbed off about the Ormskirk MotorFest

A LITTLE bit of Monaco in a Lancashire market town. That was the selling point of the very first Ormskirk MotorFest, way back in 2011 – and I'm pleased to say that in most aspects the event's managed it.

I'm sure you'll be shocked to learn that Ormskirk doesn't come with the balmy Mediterranean climate of the sun-kissed principality (although to be fair, it's only rained on one outing so far), and there's a branch of Morrisons in lieu of the super-rich lining the harbour with superyachts.

But the important thing is that it had a closed street circuit where you could watch old F1 cars strutting their stuff – and bubble cars, Ferrari Enzos, stock cars and historic motorcycles, for that matter.

So I was saddened to read in last week's Champion that the MotorFest had been called off for the second year on the trot.

Entirely understandable due to the risk of spreading COVID-19 with cases currently still rising – so it'll be back next year, right?

Well, then I got shown a copy of a letter from West Lancashire Borough Council, which has been helping to fund the event since its initial outing more than a decade ago, to Aintree Circuit Club, which organises all the displays and runs around Ormskirk's one-way system.

In it, Heidi McDougall, the council's corporate director of place and community, told the club: "It is also with regret that I must advise that the council, due to ongoing pressures, made worse by the impact of COVID, on its financial position is not able to continue to support Motorfest financially or with staff resource, as it has done in previous years.

"If Aintree Circuit Club wish to hold a MotorFest in future years, I would encourage you to look to make it financially self-sustaining and to draw upon your own members and volunteers to adequately staff the event and ensure it is run safely."

Draw from that what you will, but to me that sounds as though the council is no longer prepared to back the event responsible for Ormskirk's single busiest trading day of the year, with 42,000 people packing into the town centre for 2019's event.

So, for my own research for a piece in Classic Car Weekly, I asked the council whether it intends for the event to continue without the council's cash or manpower, on behalf of all the car nuts among you who'd love to see it continue.

What I got back, even though the council told me the MotorFest was 'an outstanding event' which it hopes will be back next year, was weirdly familiar. It didn't take me long to find out why – it was exactly the same statement it'd given to my colleagues at The Champion last week, word for word!

Forgive me for feeling a bit fobbed off, but I reckon you, the car nuts who are the beating heart of the Ormskirk MotorFest and who bring your cars, your bikes and – most importantly, for the council's point of view – your wallets to West Lancashire every August Bank Holiday weekend deserve to know.

While I reckon the MotorFest has a bright future, no matter how it's funded, I think the council ought to tell us how it's going to support the event as opposed to merely 'enabling' it, which is what it told us it was looking to do from next year onwards.

I know Ormskirk isn't Monaco, but where else can you get to see a Saudia-Williams F1 car screaming around a market town's one-way system?

David Simister is the editor of Classic Car Weekly

Ford's faster all electric Mustang

FORD is bringing a faster version of its all-electric Mustang Mach-E to the North West.

The Mach-E GT is the quickest five-seater that the company's ever sold in Europe, sprinting to 60mph in just 3.7 seconds, which is down to the zero-emissions powerplant sending the equivalent of 487bhp to all four wheels.

The GT's also been given sharper suspension, new tyres and has a claimed 310-mile range – and it's available to order now, with prices starting at £67,225.

Lancashire AUTO

Since we first started trading back in 1948 as Smith and Landers, choice and customer service has been at the forefront of everything we do. In 2007 we expanded to become Lancashire Ford and we have continued to thrive and grow through many other changes along the way.

We have now relaunched as Lancashire Auto and although we have taken the decision to expand on the brands we can offer, Ford were pleased to learn that we would keep their logo and continue to work with them and support their new car warranties in the way we always have. Our customers have demanded and deserve more choice, better value and they want it from a reliable and professional local dealer that isn't driven by targets and pressure from a boardroom in another country – they want it from the family dealers that have been looking after them for decades.

Existing customers can rest easy in the knowledge that the vehicles they have purchased from us will remain fully supported and the fantastic choice on offer at Lancashire Auto will include Mercedes-Benz, BMW, Porsche, Kia and Nissan as well as many others joining Ford in our ever changing line up. In order to ensure we are offering an extensive range of cars to suit everyone, we make sure that we update our stocklist regularly. If you don't see what you are looking for on our website, it is always worth calling in – we hope to be able to source exactly what you are looking for.

We offer advice on all our vehicles and our friendly staff will always go the extra mile to guarantee that you receive the advice and support you need. We offer competitive finance on all our vehicles. Our promise to our customers is more choice and the same commitment to value and customer service that has been expected of us since we began serving the local community 73 years ago. Our costs will be lower and value for money higher than ever. Times change and we have too – come and see for yourselves!
